

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Kansas City &
Omaha Districts

2006 Missouri River Spring Pulse Monitoring & Evaluation Program

February 28, 2006

Gavins Point Dam

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Kansas City &
Omaha Districts

Overview

- Monitoring and Evaluation effort a result of Plenary Group meetings
- Corps is lead agency with many partners
- Draft plans have been prepared
 - Stakeholder input encouraged
- Implementation planned for March Pulse

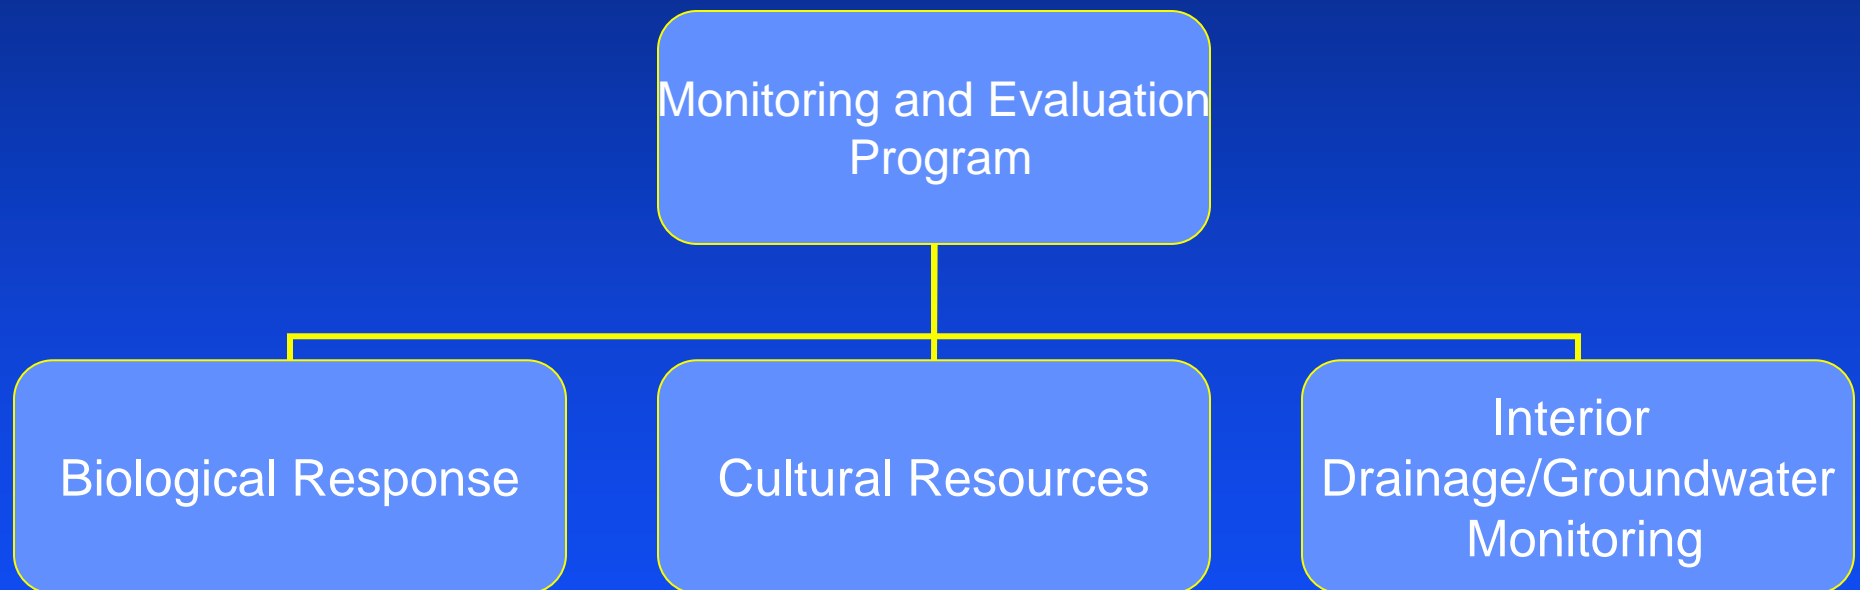

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Kansas City &
Omaha Districts

Overview (cont.)

- Developing three specific plans

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Kansas City &
Omaha Districts

Overview (cont.)

- Each plan is being coordinated by a separate Corps PM
- Data collected will be compiled and analyzed following May Pulse
- Results will be prepared in a comprehensive report and made available to the public
- Report completion mid-August (tentative)

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Kansas City &
Omaha Districts

Program Goals

- Develop tools capable of predicting results from various scenarios
- Address stakeholder's concerns
- Obtain data useful in the protection of the endangered pallid
- Provide validation of efforts

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Kansas City &
Omaha Districts

QUESTIONS?

